

The plan for each sub-plenary, subject to possible change is:

UNION GROWTH

Monday, 19 May

14:00–17:30

Corporate Organising campaigns

Tuesday, 20 May

09:00-12:30

Regional Organising Targets and ITUC Organising Academy
Organising Campaigns of National Centres

14:00-17:30

Organising in the Informal Economy

Wednesday, 21 May

14:00-17:30

Domestic Workers

Thursday, 22 May

09:00-12:30

Youth - Get Organised
New Forms of Worker Representation

14:00-15:00

Union Targets - 20 million Challenge

SUSTAINABLE JOBS - SECURE INCOMES - SOCIAL PROTECTION

Monday 19, May

14:00-17:30

The jobs crisis, inequality and redistribution

Tuesday 20, May

09:00-12:30

Taming corporate power: trade and supply chains

14:00-17:30

Retirement Incomes: Adequacy, Investment and Governance,
Climate change - will industry save the climate?

Wednesday, 21 May

14:00-17:30

Count Us In: Women's Participation in Work and Unions

Thursday, 22 May

09:00-12:30 Trade Unions Partnering for Development

REALISING RIGHTS

Monday, 19 May

14:00-16:30

Countries at Risk – Mobilising Global Solidarity

Tuesday, 20 May

09:00-12:30 Migrant Workers – Organising for Rights

14:00- 17:30

Indigenous Peoples – Land, Work and Rights

“We Rise” – Ending Violence Against Women

Wednesday, 21 May

14:00-17:30

Combatting Precarious Work

Organising for Occupational Safety and Health

Thursday, 22 May

09:00-12:30

Workplace Discrimination – A Workers’ Hearing

Peace and Freedom – Unions Engaged in Peace and Liberation Struggles

Provision is made for each sub-plenary to meet from 14:00 – 15:00 on Thursday 22 May, to finalise any work which needs to be completed. The reports from the sub-plenaries, with any amendments to the Action Frameworks, will then be sent to the Congress Standing Orders Committee.