

Amandla!

Swazi workers are fighting for social security, health care, living wages, labour law reform, multi-party democracy and better working conditions.

The ITUC supports their struggle by pressuring the government at through the ILO, the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights and the Commonwealth

Local shop steward councils and worker education programs are assisted on an on-going basis

Join the Friends of Swaziland and become part of the campaign!
Contact the ITUC Human and Trade Union Rights Department for more information: tur@ituc-csi.org

